

Conference Schedule

May 1, 2026:

Session 1: Memories, Histories, and Heritage

Session 2: Digital and Popular Entanglements

Session 3: Gender, Race, Embodiment, and Agency

Session 4: Formations of Muslim Subjectivity: Text, Memory, and Power

Roundtable: Islamophobic Dis/Continuities

Keynote by Dr. Jasmin Zine followed by reception

May 2, 2026:

Session: 1 Futures, Reclamation and Resistance

Session 2: Entangled Ethics

Session 3: Intersecting Solidarities: Muslim Belonging, Racism, and Global-Local Struggles in Canada

May 1 & 2

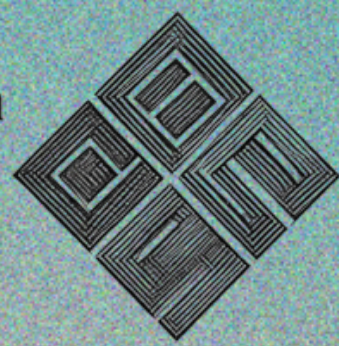

CASIM Biennial Conference

Entanglements

Registration required: via link
or QR code.

Queen's University School of Religion, Kingston Ontario

CASIM Conference Keynote by Dr. Jasmin Zine

Dr. Jasmin Zine is a Professor of Sociology and Religion & Culture at Wilfrid Laurier University. Her recent publications include Under Siege: Islamophobia and the 9/11 Generation (McGill-Queens University Press, 2022) and The Canadian Islamophobia Industry: Mapping Islamophobia's Ecosystem in the Great White North (Islamophobia Studies Center/Islamophobia Research and Development Project, University of California, Berkeley, 2022). In 2026 she was named Laurier's University Research Professor, an award for the recognition of continuous outstanding scholarship.

Unpacking Islamophobia's Ecosystem in Canada: Unholy Alliances and Strategic Entanglements.

Registration required: via link
or QR code.

Queen's University Club, at 4pm on May 1, 2026